

SEE HOW TO LIVE AT THE 2007 SPRING HOME SHOW

Tucson, AZ (March 1, 2007) - The Manufactured Housing Industry of Arizona (MHIA) has announced the arrival of the 2007 Spring Home Show March 17-25 at Rillito Raceway Park, 4502 N. First Ave. The 2007 Spring Home Show is open daily from 10:00 AM to 6:00 PM. Admission is free and open to the public.

See how to live as manufacturers and retailers showcase 14 fully decorated model homes on the grounds of the park. Industry representatives will be on hand to discuss the almost endless options available, including exciting new exteriors, designer features and flexible floor plans, custom interior options, energy-efficient design and construction, and the many financing options available, including FHA/VA and Conventional financing. Information on land/home packages will also be available.

“The 2007 Spring Manufactured Home Show promises to be spectacular,” said Rick Gastineau, Home Show Chairman, continuing, “If anyone has ever considered the advantages of owning a Manufactured Home, this is the perfect place to be. Retailers will be displaying their newest designs, complete with on-site financing, and manufacturer’s representatives will be on hand to address any questions.”

Visitors are encouraged to register for a free CD or DVD (a $19.95 value) packed with information in English and Spanish about Manufactured Housing: how they are constructed, where to place a Manufactured Home, financing options, even decorating ideas.

The Manufactured Housing Industry of Arizona is dedicated to increasing home ownership opportunities in Arizona by focusing on image improvement, zoning equality and customer satisfaction. Its membership includes Manufacturers, Retailers, Developers, Lenders, Contractors/Installers, Suppliers, and Brokers of Pre-Owned Homes. MHIA has a legislative and regulatory program designed to protect and promote the interests of the industry. It also conducts educational programs designed to address members' needs and industry issues.

#